GARDENS OF MEMORY

*The gardens are faded and wilted
Their brown beds, moldy and bare
With moonlight to create the sadness
Of discovering roses once there.*

*And lingering, soft in the shadows
On pathways that wind round about
I pick my bouquet of an evening
With the trembling stars all out.*

*There is something to say of a garden
When its petals have fallen from view.
There is more in the birth of a blossom
Than its aroma and delicate hue*

*Surely others have gathered, as I have,
Bouquets from a withered past
A flower must fade after blooming . . .
But gardens of memory last.*

OFFICE STAFF

"BOSSSES" THE L.C. FAMILY

Seated at the left is Helen Huneke, secretary; Mable Swanson, attendance clerk; and Principal A. L. Parker, who, figuratively speaking, is the head of the L.C. family.

The Mathematics department, under the direction of Fred Kramlich, is happy to have two new members in its family, Clinton N. Carlson and Glen D. Daugherty. First row: Eugene G. Sivertson, Eugenia Kempf, William E. Donner, Blanche Smith. Second row: Clinton N. Carlson, Fred Kramlich, Glen D. Daugherty, H. P. Aldrich.

MATHEMATICS AND ENGLISH DEPARTMENTS

The English department, which is the largest department in the school, is composed of teachers which have been affiliated with the school for a number of years. The newest teacher is Mrs. Kathryn Sullivan, who in addition to teaching English, plays the Lewis and Clark Organ. The teacher who has been associated with the English department for the longest period of time is Carl G. Miller, who has been here for 32 years. First row: Martha Graham, Grace G. Peck, Lois H. Knox, Francis I. Vecchio, Joyce Wickline, Marian H. Pettis, Helen Black, Vivian Zent. Second row: Hazel Champbell, Ernest E. McElvain, Kathryn Sullivan, Philip M. Baird, Mary W. Watrous, George Palmer, Ada Howard, Carl G. Miller.

LIBRARY, FOREIGN LANGUAGES, INDUSTRIAL ARTS

The thousands and thousands of books used by the L.C. family are under the direction of three women: Mrs. Bernice M. Bruton, head librarian, shown at the right, Mrs. Rachel Renn, assistant librarian, shown in the center, and Mrs. Norma McQuown, bookroom clerk, shown at the left.

The middle group of teachers make up the staff of the Foreign Language department, headed by Marguerite Cross. New to the staff this year is Mrs. Helen Black, who teaches Spanish. First row: Marguerite Cross, Martha Graham. Second row: Grace Bartlett, Wesley Read, Lillian Charbonneau, Helen Black.

The principal new thing about the Industrial Arts Department this year is the organization of the complete department on the basement floor. William Dunlop is the head of the staff. Absent from the picture is Robert Bartlett, who teaches safe driving. Mr. Dunlop is in the center, at his left is Elmer Rich, and at his right is Gilbert Brooks.

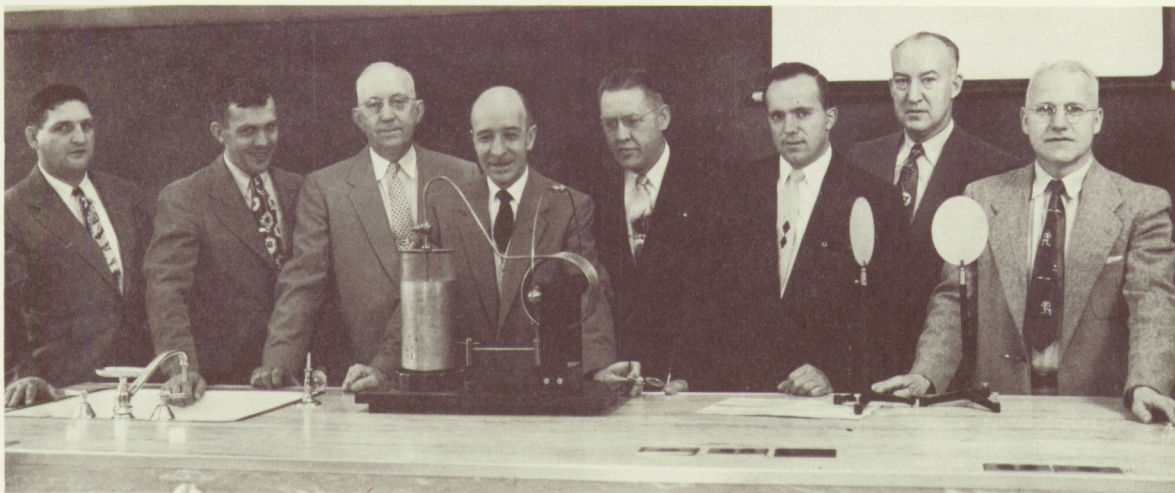

ART, MUSIC, STUDY HALL

The art family, although limited in the number of teachers, is compensated for by having two very able and experienced instructors in the persons of Miriam Morgan, left, and Lydia S. Goes, head.

These two hard-working faculty members, Gerald Hartley and C. Oliver Fuller, shown in the middle, constitute the Music department. Mr. Hartley, left, directs all choral groups and Mr. Fuller, right, head of the department, directs the band and orchestra. Both present varied and well received concerts throughout the year.

Ruth Anderson and Edith Collins, the two study hall teachers whose hard work enables the students to study, are pictured at the bottom. Both have been with the Lewis and Clark family for a number of years. Mrs. Collins, the mother of three L.C. graduates, was a former English teacher.

News of the Science department pertains to a new laboratory and two new teachers, Charles Wooldridge and Clinton N. Charlson. The long waited laboratory in Room 314 was completed and well received. The department hopes that more improvements are in the offing. From left to right: Gene Arger, Charles Wooldridge, R. C. Anderson, L. G. Minard, Clarence E. Miller, Clinton N. Charlson, Gerald Meckelson, H. M. Louderback.

SCIENCE AND SOCIAL STUDIES

Miss Katherine Hunt, lone woman in the department, is the new head of social studies teachers. Working with her are eleven men teachers. Louis Livingston has returned to the staff after a two-year absence. First row: William B. Graham, Arthur Frey, E. W. Toevs, Katherine Hunt, Robert L. Bartlett, Max F. Schoening. Second row: Louis Livingston, Norman C. Perring, John L. Wuhrman, C. William Anderson, Orlando Fletcher, John B. Peterson.

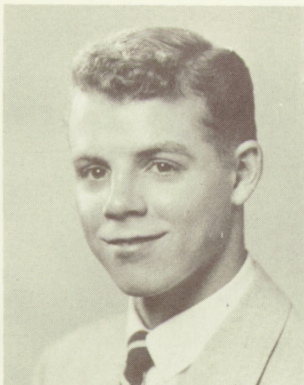

HOME ECONOMICS, PHYSICAL EDUCATION, COMMERCIAL

Girls aren't the only ones taking home economics anymore. You will now find classes of boys taking some of the courses. Boys may enroll in social relations, child development and a foods class entitled "Chef," a name the boys gave it. Teachers in above picture are Averil E. Fouts, Ann Cunningham, Gracia White, department head, Ruby Philips.

These familiar physical educational teachers are very closely knit together, helping each other at all times. While Mr. Jones assists Mr. Hunter in the boys' P.E. department, Mrs. Jones helps Miss Danke in the girls' P.E. department. Since Hal Jones and Charlotte Jones are husband and wife there is also a faculty tie-in here. From left to right: Harold Jones, Virginia Danke, E. L. Hunter, Charlotte Jones.

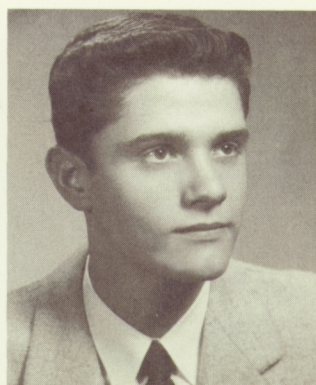

The commercial family pictured at the bottom has been under the direction of Charles E. Baten for many years. Absent from the picture is E. A. Orcutt and Mrs. Cynthia Plowman. Mrs. York substituted for Mrs. Plowman and Mrs. Magnuson for Mr. Orcutt. First row: Delbert Marshall, Charles E. Baten, Alonzo Woolard. Second row: Miss Bernadette Proulx, Mrs. Mary York, Mrs. Evelyn Magnuson.

Top: Sandy Cook and Jerry Hahn were school winners in the "I Speak for Democracy" contest sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce. Hahn then received further honors by placing first in the city. Middle: The football team picked these senior girls as their favorites. They are Princesses Sally Beil and Anne MacGillivray, Queen Gail Peterson, and Princesses Janet Chisholm and Nan Byfield. Bottom: The hats of the guest speakers on vocational day caught the fancy of these three seniors. The hats of various styles, sizes, and shapes were on the counter next to Mr. Parker's office. The boys are Pogeys Hull, Le Roy Hisavasu, and Bob Thomas.

The senior potluck, the most highly attended social event of the first semester, is the scene for the above pictures. Eating (1): Beverly Winn, Betty McDowell, Arlene Wyene, Joanne Newcomb, Phylis Melior, JoAnne McGuire, Jane Permaine, Elaine Jacobson. Program (2): Larry Sutherland, Bill Colwell, Al Kilburg, Carol Eddy, Buddy Brannon, Bill Doric, Vic Hagen, Gerald Hahn, Nancy Gilmore. Eating (3): Gail Wilcox, June Drazen, Sally Beil, Larry Bennigson, John Mjoen, Art Tinsley. Entertainment (4): Orville Trapp, Galen Rowe, Penny Myers, Judy Halladay, Dianne Whitney, Shirley Le Blanc, Bobby Coman, Al Kilburg.

1954 TIGER NINE CAPTURES CHAMPIONSHIP

The Tiger baseballers captured their thirteenth city championship in the spring of "54," their first since 1951. Lightly regarded in pre-season predictions, the Tigers "backed" into the championship when N.C. downed the Bengals in the season finale 4-2, but Rogers upset Gonzaga 6-2 to hand the Tigers the title. Lewis and Clark was branded anything but a championship team at the start of the season. They were thought to be weak in pitching and in having a young and inexperienced club. Coach Max Schoening surprised everyone and came up with an effective, balanced nine.

B-SQUADERS CAPTURE SECOND PLACE

Under the leadership of Coach Jack Peterson, the Tiger seconds, loaded with plenty of fine talent, made a strong bid for the City B-Squad title in the spring of "54." The boys had seven wins and three losses, bowing to Rogers who took the city title. Noteworthy was Frank Barnes' no hitter against West Valley and Larry Sampson's home run against Rogers.

TRACK GREENIES TAKE FOURTH PLACE

Coach "Skip" Louderback's freshman track team finished the season with two wins, two losses, and a second in the sectional meet and a fourth in the all-city. Promising for the frosh this season were: Bill Couchman in the shot-put and sprints; Linden Connelly in the sprints; and Dave Morgan in the sprints and hurdles. First row: Jim Arleth, Charles Engler, Dean Daniels, Jim Oki, Dick Bastedo, Bob Finch, Bob Bowman, Hugh Tinling, Ed Holmes. Second row: Linden Connelly, Stuart Boyd, Timmy Anderson, Max Etter, Glen Hagen, Doug Strand, Nelson Christensen, Dave Morgan.

1954 TRACK TEAM VICTORIOUS

The talent laden L.C. tracksters put on a terrific showing again in the spring of "54" by taking the city title for the second straight year. Beginning with the North Central relays, the power packed Tigers met and conquered all opposition on the track and field, capturing first place in the Tri-District meet. At the last and biggest meet of the year, the state meet at Pullman, they collected a worthy share of events by coming in fourth in the state. Jim Canton, Art James, and Bill Colwell, proved to be valuable sparks in the tracksters' triumphant season. First row: Curtis Minor, George Vitalis, Gorden Pogue, Jim Canton, Joe Mauro, Eddie Pool, John Gray. Second row: Lee Mauro, John Mjoen, Art James, Hiram Clark, Chad Mitchel, Dick Anderson, Bill Cowell, Clark Wiseman. Third row: Coach Art Frey, Lynn Tower, Ralph Morrison, John Schwenger, Jack McElroy, Larry Benningson, Hank Upton, Willie Jones, Del Montoya, Fred Blackwell, Mike Skaer. Fourth row: Art Phol, Leroy Hisayasu, Gene Boykin, Ron Belka, Jim Donnery, Frank Oki, Jim Boyd, Keith Nance, Karl Nehammer, Cliff Howard.

ACTION ON THE DIAMOND

THREATS

Top: Gaining valuable experience in the spring of '54, these Tiger hurdlers were expected to add strength in Art Frey's bid for his 1955 championship: Curtis Minor, Gordon Pogue, Larry Benningson, John Schwenger, Willie Jones. Middle: The coach planned for these boys to pace LC in the broad jump, high jump, shotput, and pole vault: Hiram Clark, Jim Boyd, Curtis Minor. Second row: Gordon Pogue, Cliff Howard, John Grey, Willie Jones, Joe Mauro. Bottom: These long distance men showed promise in the spring of '54. They were paced by state mile champ, Bill Colwell. First row: Del Montoya, Bill Colwell, Lynn Tower. Second row: George Vitalis Art Pohl, Clark Wiseman, Gene Boykin, Ed Pool, Jack McElroy.

TRACK STANDOUTS

Bill Colwell and Chad Mitchell were outstanding distance runners for the '54 championship track team. Each setting numerous records, they formed a dependable girder in the framework of our thin-clad squad. Triumphant the B squad strong-arm boys strike a bold pose. They contributed much to the success of the B-squad track team throughout the season. They are: Keith Nance, Jim Boyd, who broke the shotput record at the all-city meet, Frank Oki, Karl Nehammer, Jim Donnery, and John Mjoen, who later moved to the varsity.

L. C.'S BEST GOLFERS

It is seldom that on a golf team of high school level one can find so many individuals capable of shooting consistently in the seventies as are present on our golf squad here at L.C. Although our golfers claimed the city championship in '52 and tied with Gonzaga for first place in '53 and '54, this year should be exceptionally outstanding. Pictured above are the leading senior golfers who will graduate this June. At upper left is Dave Street, who came to LC from Boise. In Boise he won the Junior Kiwanis Golf Tourney and the Junior Chamber of Commerce championship along with other golfing honors. Upper right is Jim Johnson, who has been improving year by year and is now a reliable club swinger, posting many good scores. Center is Paul Njaa, who represented Spokane in National Junior Golf get-together, held in California, because of his golfing ability. Lower left is Ray Schmidt, who was medalist in the Inland Empire High School Tourney in both '52 and '53. At lower right is Jerry Camp, who was medalist in the Inland Empire High School Tourney with a brilliant round of 71 in '54.

BOYS' GOLF SQUAD

Here is LC's golfing squad which you are apt to see in any type of weather invading the fairways and putting greens of our local courses. Each determined to better his score, indoor practice has been put into effect during winter months. Those on the squad are: Front row: Ward Livingston, Paul Njaa, Jason Njaa, Gary Steiner, Dave Street, Randy Fosseen, Jerry Camp, Jim Johnson, King Novell, Ray Schmidt. Second row: Dave Genrich, Glen Fansler, Bruce McGrew, Paul Hunt, Bert McAtee, Floyd Morris, Jim Fray, John Downes, and Dale Mehaffey. Duane Davis was not present for the picture.

GIRLS' GOLF TEAM

Posed here are our Patty Bergs of the future golfing world. Boasting good showings in inter-school competition, they are an important part of our school sports program. Players are: Front row: Colleen Moyer, Sharin Davidson, Rochelle Curtis, Barbara Baker, Florence Aspray, Linda Buchanan, Bunny Cunningham, Mary Bush, and Mary Chelde. Back row: Jan Cheadle, Gaye DeChenne, Barbara Hall, Barbara Brown, Sandra Forbes, Ann Bradford, Diane Parker, and Dolores Bettys.

GIRLS' TENNIS

The girls' tennis team was not too successful this fall. They finished the season with a tie for third place with a record of one tie and three losses. Number one player on the team was Sandy Leyda. Standing: Glenda George, Betty Prestwich, Corrine Lyle, Carol Bakken, Louise Hoyt, Eloise Smith, Sherry McAllister. Kneeling: Lois Boler-owski, Karen Oberg, Paul Fendler, Sandy Leyda, Jaynee Farnsworth, Pat McCannon, Joan Dalrimple.

NET TEAM TIES FOR TITLE

The Tiger tennis team, bolstered by Dave Broom, John Peacock, and Don Taylor, returning lettermen, completed their third and most successful season by gaining a three-way tie for the city championship. The season was highlighted by the team's 6-3 upset win over Rogers. This defeat marked the first time since 1951 the Pirate racqueteers have suffered a defeat in league play. The LC team was sparked by Broom, a junior, who won consistently in the regular season and won the J. E. Campbell Trophy in a three-day elimination tournament held at Comstock park. With a number of sophomores and juniors Coach Hal Jones looks forward to another successful season next year. First row: Al Immel, Dick Green, Johnny Anderson, Clude Canfeld, Mick Soss, Dave Raymond, Don Taylor. Sec-ond row: John Peacock, Mike Gordon, Dave Broom, Gordon Warren, Terry Beck, Neal Hertell. Third row: Coach Hal Jones.

CHAMPIONS FIVE TIMES IN A ROW

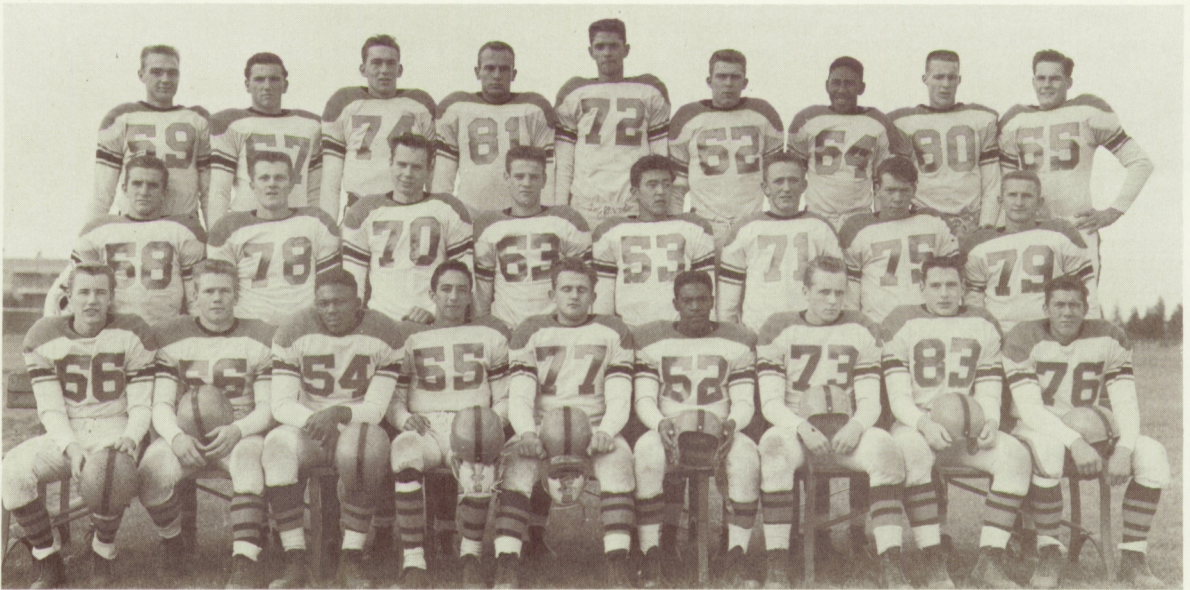

For the fifth straight year the freshman football team, under the leadership of "Skip" Louderback, has captured the city crown. This is the fourth straight year they did it with four wins and no losses. Outstanding players were Gary Johnson, Don Miller, and Chuck Gamble in the backfield, with Terry Shiga and Gary McGeorge stand-outs as tackles. Tom Betts was the star center. During the past four years Coach Louderback has been aided by Bill (C. W.) Anderson. First row: Clayton Vosen, Manager, Mike McKillop, Andy Holt, Jim Dalrimple, Paul Hopkins, Bob Colwell, Chuck Gamble, Dick Berger, Manager, Tom Clark, Manager. Second row: Bart Patch, Forrester Johnson, Tony Vargo, Mike Cole, Don Miller, Mike Anderson, Gary Kepl, Gary McGeorge, Mike Brown, Tom Prestwich, David Hargreaves. Third row: Doug McBroom, David Nightser, James Oberg, Tom Betts, William Akers, Paul Whalen, Isamu Kawabari, Arvin Hausen, Terry Shiga, John Campbell, Tony Plastino. Fourth row: Fred Fricke, Rick Judy, Gary Johnson, Bob Gimble, Art Tower, Aldredge Graves, Gary Honda, Mike Konishi, Dean Dagman, Kent Mihre, Dean Baymond.

KITTENS PLACE FOURTH

Coached by Gene Sivertson, last spring's greenies finished in fourth place in the city frosh league. Outstanding perhaps was Mickey Soss, who did some commendable pitching throughout the season. "There will be some very promising ball-players from the frosh team coming up to the varsity next year," prophesied Coach Sivertson. Front row: Paul Lewis, Al Keigley, Mickey Soss, Bob Marks, Gary Grendahl, Jeff Morphy, and Carl Cordes. Second row: John McDonald, Pat Allen, Jim Stewart, Marvin Scalph, Tom Williams, John Gallagher, Dick Vervair, Bob Tweedy, Dave Newell, and Bill Campbell, manager. Third row: Matt Ernst, Ron Bridges, Dennis Hooper, Gene Sivertson (coach), Glen Scritchfield, Carl Guenzel, Tom Wilson, Ron Gifford, and Neil Hertel.

TIGERS FOUGHT HARD

"They made a lot of mistakes, but they never once quit. The boys worked hard and they were as good a team as I've ever coached." Thus spoke Coach Bob Bartlett about the team that finished last in the City League. Having only five returning lettermen to build around, the Tigers suffered eight straight defeats. The team was sparked by Tackle John Mjoen and Willie Jones, halfback, who were both chosen on the All-City Team. Many sophomores and juniors gained valuable experience this year and they should prove to be tough next fall. First row: Larry Geraghty, Bob Gifford, Hiram Clark, Ed Groves, Larry Peachey, Jim Canton, Paul Hull, John Grey, George Vitalins. Second row: Wayne Hill, Gordon Skillingstad, Perry Morton, Dave Luleich, Frank Oki, Mike Peterson, Gary Roberts, Larry Nelson. Third row: Ronnie Jacoy, Larry Sampson, Jim Boyd, John Mjoen, Larry Bennigson, Pete Riley, Willie Jones, Gail Cogdill, Lex Gamble.

TIGER MENTORS

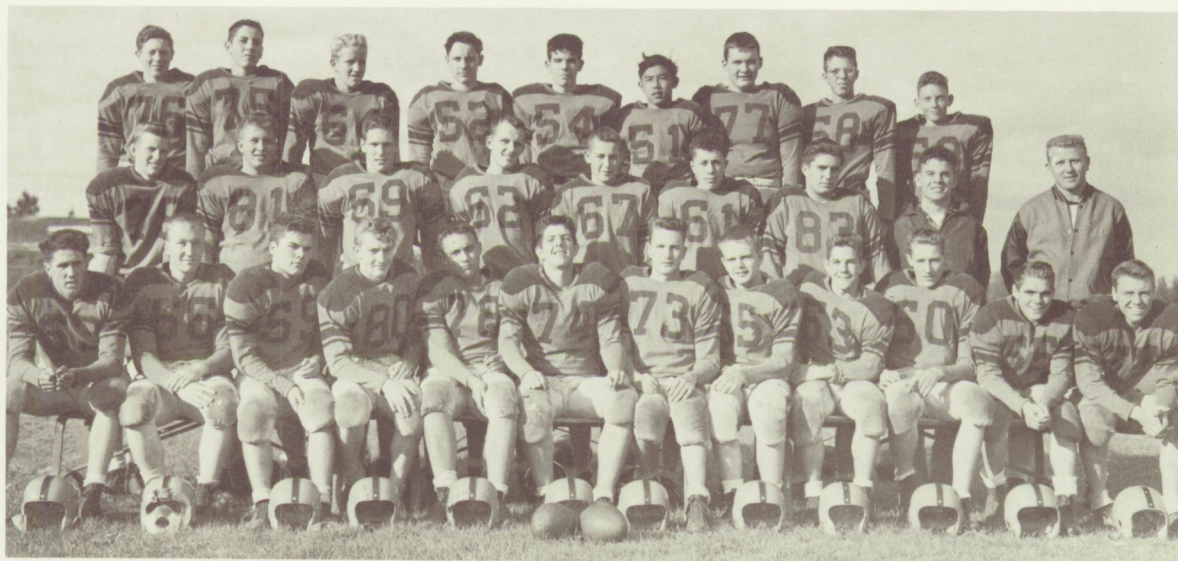

After serving as B-Squad football coach for one year, Jack Peterson was promoted to assistant varsity coach. This is Coach Peterson's second season at L.C. Coach Bob Bartlett, now head varsity football coach, has been at L.C. for seven years and has served as head coach for three years. Varsity line coach, Gene Arger, has been conditioning the Tiger line for the past three seasons, after serving five years on the B-Squad.

MANAGERS PROVE USEFUL

Jim Nyborg (center) was head manager of the varsity football team. With the help of Bob Dycus (left) and Mike Killien (right), the three took care of the team's needs. Their jobs were such things as these: first aid, carrying water to the boys on the team, and caring for the team's equipment. Nyborg was with the team for three years. Dycus received credit as the radio spotter.

B-SQUAD CO-CHAMPIONS

The B-gridders completely overwhelmed all opposition and finished the season in a first place tie with North Central. Jack Peterson and Gene Sivertson directed the team until Coach Peterson was advanced to the varsity as a line coach. Then Gene Sivertson took over completely. The junior Bengals, momentarily weakened by the loss of its first string and coach to the varsity, suffered its only loss to N.C. The B-eleven came roaring back under its new coach to finish the season with a 6-1 record and a co-championship. Members of the team who advanced to the varsity are: Max Etter, Tom True, John Gallagher, Gary Cogdill, Larry Shopbell, and Stuart Moyd. First row: Danny Nelson, Jim Donery, Rod Dietz, Glenn Scritchfield, Bill Couchman, Max Etter, Tom True, Dave Morgan, John Gallagher, Gary Cogdill, Larry Shopbell, Jack Schlangen. Second row: Dick Knutsen, John Forehand, Dan Gerphiede, Tim Anderson, Stuart Boyd, John Sargent, Tom Wilson, Fred Laehn, Mgr. Jack Peterson. Third row: Bob Root, George Gregg, Ed Larsen, Ron Bridges, Frank Barnes, Ken Kai, Dick Lyle, Dean Daniels, Al Keigley.

NIGHT FOOTBALL

Top: After taking a pitchout from Larry Sampson (67), Chad Mitchell follows his interference, Hiram Clark (54) and Tom McMillan (61), around left end for a short gain against Gonzaga. Willie Jones (64) in the far background.
Bottom: Chad Mitchell again about to be tackled by two Gonzaga men after picking up three yards. Jim Canton (52) is shown doing a dance over a downed man.

CITY AND A.A.U. CHAMPIONS

For the fourth straight year LC has produced the city cross country champions. For the second straight year they have been led by Bill Colwell, who has set the city record in this distance event. His record is 8:36 on a 1.9 mile course. Coach Art Frey said that this was the second-best and second-fastest team in the school's history. These speedsters also won the A.A.U. Championship. The LC harriers have won such prominence that cross country is now considered a major sport in this school. First row: Joe Mauro, manager, Glen Hagen, Don Campbell, Bob Finch. Second row: Eddie Pool, Bill Colwell, Nelson Christianson, Del Montaya.

B HARRIERS SECOND

Finishing second in the City League and the A.A.U. meet, the B-Cross Country Squad completed a successful season. The junior harriers downed Rogers 23-35 but lost the following week to N.C. 20-35. The team was made up of sophomores who did not qualify for varsity competition, but were given a chance to run against boys of their own ability to prepare them for the varsity. The team is coached by Art Frey. Outstanding runner throughout the season was Dick Bastedo. First row: Bob Manion, Gene Boykin, Bob Bowman. Second row: Dick Bastedo, Lorne Wothington, Lynn Tower, Huge Tinnling, Joe Mauro, Mgr.

INTRAMURAL TEAMS ACTIVE

Intramural sports interest this active group of girls led by Miss Danke. The girls meet on Thursdays after school. If the girls have perfect attendance in all three sports—volleyball, basketball, and softball, they win letters. This group consists of girls from freshmen to seniors. First row: Rosalie Weymouth, Ilene Gensel, Sharon Hamilton, Susan Prescott, Jane O'Hara, Dorothy Culbertson, Sharon Barton, Celia Thamm, Connie Morgan, Marydell Keenbaum, Dorothy La Rue. Second row: Pat Jensen, Carol Reid, Carol Duren, Connie Peters, Marian Muir, Rubie Taylor, Ekdora Engebretsen, Billie Sharpe, Linda Laitinin, Dana Alsworth, Dolores Penman, Sherry Mead. Third row: Wenda Silverthorne, Judy Aigner, Mary Masters, Sylva Witty, Oleta Hood, Gaye Young, Pat Barthule, Billie Johnson, Marilyn Daggett, Inez LaRue, Stella Linardos, Joyce Fleckenstein, Sharon Griffith.

HUGE CROWDS VIEW BASKETBALL AT COLISEUM

Top left: Willy Jones, speedy Lewis and Clark guard, is shown blocking a layin by Rudy Alexander of West Valley. Top right: Gail Cogdill (15), a top scoring LC center, is attempting to block a shot by Meyers of Gonzaga. Looking on is Frank Barnes (5), junior LC guard. Bottom left: Leroy Levesque (11), fast LC center, is scrambling for a rebound as he is visibly fouled by Meyers of Gonzaga. Floyd Damon (12), high point scorer of the Tiger five, and Frank Barnes are ready for action in the background. Bottom right: Willy Jones leaping for a rebound is opposed by an unidentified West Valley hoopster. Observing play outside the center of action are Frank Barnes and Perry Morton of LC. Insert: Squinty Hunter, long-time coach of numerous LC championship squads. Although Squinty's team failed to be a contender in the city race this year, on several occasions they showed the precision and strength that is characteristic of Squinty's brand of fine basketball.

JAYVEES TIE FOR FIRST

A strong defense and a group of boys that played good ball proved to be the winning combination as the B-Squad gained a three-way tie for first. Although losing Jack Schlangen, Gary Cogdill, Dennis Rielly, and Larry Shopbell to the varsity, the Jayvees had enough strength to carry them through the season with a 7-3 record. To choose the outstanding player would be too difficult as the B-Squad had ten outstanding men, according to Jack Peterson, coach. First row: Jim Stewart, Willie Jones, Larry Sampson, Larry Shopbell, Pat Nichols. Second row: Tim Anderson, Mike Peterson, Terry Schmidt, Tom True, Doug Taylor.

KITTENS WIN CROWN

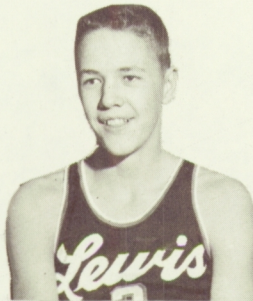

The reward for playing heads-up ball was the winning of the city crown for the LC frosh. The powerful Kittens came through the season with an excellent 13-2 record. Several fine players were developed by Coach Bill Anderson. They were John Woods, Stan Moore, Don Miller and Bart Patch. First row: John Campbell, Gary Johnson, Phil Camp, Gary Stolz, Bob Colwell, Terry Underwood, Tony Plastino, Tom Betts. Second row: Ray Strecker, John Woods, Don Miller, Bart Patch, Stan Moore, Deam Bainard, Dave Nichtser, Chuck Gamble, Tom Clark, Mgr.

Lewis and Clark used innumerable players this year with Coach Squinty Hunter coming up twice with winning combinations. Floyd Damon was the only Tiger to play in all ten games. Six of these players will return next season.

HOT AND COLD TIGERS

Upsetting the favored N.C. and C.V. teams were the highlights of the Tiger basketball season. The team was paced by the cool floor play and excellent shooting ability of Floyd Damon, All-City choice, and the fiery, hustling play of little Larry Shoppbell. Losing many heartbreaking games during the season, the Tigers were a hot and cold ball club having a record of 2-6. With three sophomores and four juniors, Squinty Hunter should complete his rebuilding program and floor a top contender next year. First row: Ed Ewell, Gail Cogdill, Charley Fry, John Mjoen, Jack Schlangen, Neal Prater. Second row: Fred Laehn, Mgr., Floyd Damon, Carl Stolz, Dennis Riley, Gary Cogdill, Perry Morton.

BIRDMEN WIN THREE

Having the only badminton team in the city, these boys must play the valley schools and Mead. The well-balanced team, led by Dave Broom, compiled a record of three straight wins. The big event of the season was the Inland Empire Tournament held at the Armory. Two sophomores showing potential ability are Mickey Soss and Terry Beck. The boys are coached by Miss Danke. First row: Dave Broom, Neil Hertell, Mickey Soss, John Anderson, Jim Krasselt. Second row: Mike Gordon, Terry Beck, Dave Raymond, John Peacock, Dick Green.

RILEY HEADS FIRST SEMESTER A.S.B.

Hello Week, held in October, was the A.S.B.'s first project this year. The different name tags and cons aroused much interest, giving students something new to look forward to each day. Under the leadership of Pete Riley, the first semester's A.S.B. had the job of making the plans for the Inaugural Ball and provided a case for the pictures of each of the A.S.B. presidents. The organization also featured a yell contest. Joanne Henry, secretary; Hiram Clark, vice president; Pete Riley, president; Bill English, historian; Larry Peachey, treasurer.

A.S.B. HEAD IS GIRL

A.S.B. leaders for the second semester were constantly in action under the presidency of Sally Beil. They worked hard to raise enough money to send a boy and girl to Boys' and Girls' State, one of the most important events. Largest event was the May Day Week, during which was held a student talent con, a faculty talent con, a sunset dance, and the choosing of a king and queen. Leroy Hisayasu, historian; Floyd Damon, vice president; Sally Beil, president; Nancy Gilmore, secretary; Jeanette Farley, treasurer.

G.F. THIRTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED

Led by Jeanette Farley, the first semester Girls' Federation accomplished many things. Among them was the con at which Marcia Gusman was present to give the girls some tips on dress and posture. The Little Sister party was another important event at which the federation celebrated its 35th anniversary. The highlight of the semester was the Winter Carnival, which was a very big success. Each officer has a pin to be worn during the time she holds office which is handed down to the new incoming officers. Sally Moss, historian; Ginger Shelton, treasurer; Jeanette Farley, president; Janet Chisholm, vice president; Sylvia Lake, secretary; Missy Ashlock, sergeant-at-arms.

SISTERS LEAD GIRLS' FEDERATION

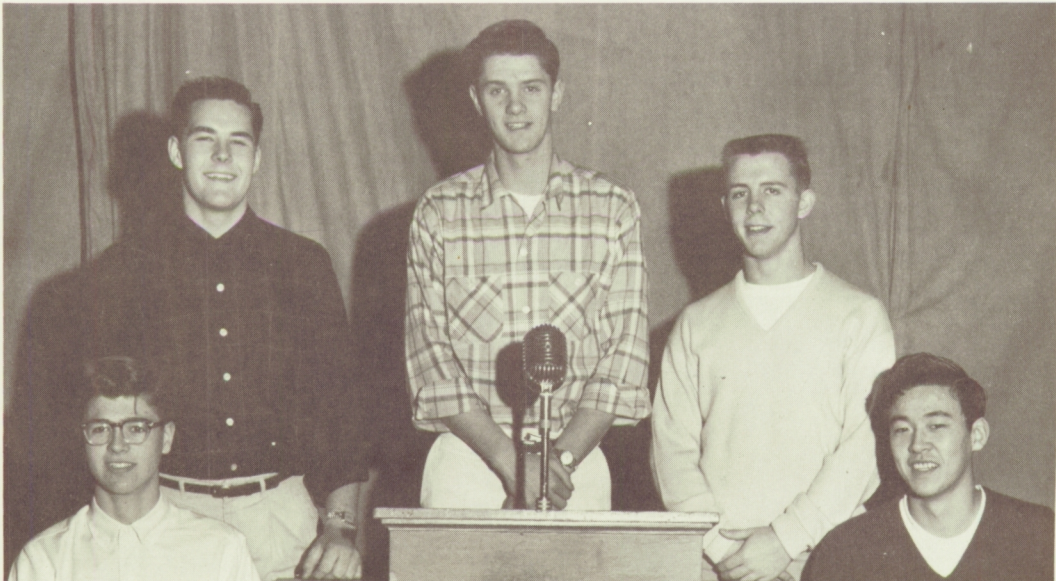

Caryl and Jackie Smith led the Girls' Federation in its many activities the second semester. Some of their activities were the Father-Daughter Dessert, the Mothers' Tea, and Cotton Day, in cooperation with the Boys' Fed. Gretchen Fouche, sergeant-at-arms; Judy Olmsted, treasurer; Caryl Smith, president; Jackie Smith, vice president; Nan Byfield, historian; Glee Perkins, secretary.

ACTIVE FIRST SEMESTER FOR B.F. OFFICERS

The Boys' Federation was fortunate this year in having Dean Kates of the St. John's Cathedral as a speaker at their installation con. The boys showed a movie concerning television in October and put on a successful talent con November 24. During December they enjoyed a Christmas mixer in cooperation with the Girls' Federation. Leroy Hisayasu, secretary; Chad Mitchell, president; Karl Nehammer, treasurer; Larry Bennigson, vice president; Dennis Ashlock, fifth executive.

BENNIGSON LEADS SECOND SEMESTER B.F.

Larry Bennigson took up the job of president of the Boys' Federation with enthusiasm and a bright outlook for the spring semester. He said the Boys' Federation has three main duties: To serve the school; to serve the Boys' Federation itself; and to serve the boys of the federation. Bennigson has been active in several fields, including science fair, clubs, and sports. Other capable officers of the Boys' Federation for the spring semester are: John Peacock, secretary; Lex Gamble, vice president; Nealan Prater, historian; and Frank Oki, treasurer.

ITS SERVICE

The Lewis and Clark band works for the glory of the school in many ways. Composed of 96 members under the direction of C. Oliver Fuller, it staged a successful fall concert in conjunction with the rest of the Music department only six weeks after the opening of the fall semester. This hard working group of teen-age musicians, of whom we are all proud, have participated in three parades and have played for six football games including the W.S.C.-College of Pacific game during the year. Our band played for four basketball games and presented three concerts in addition to competing in the W.S.C. music contest. Some worn instruments were replaced during the year, which were well received by the members.

BOOKS ARE THEIR HOBBY

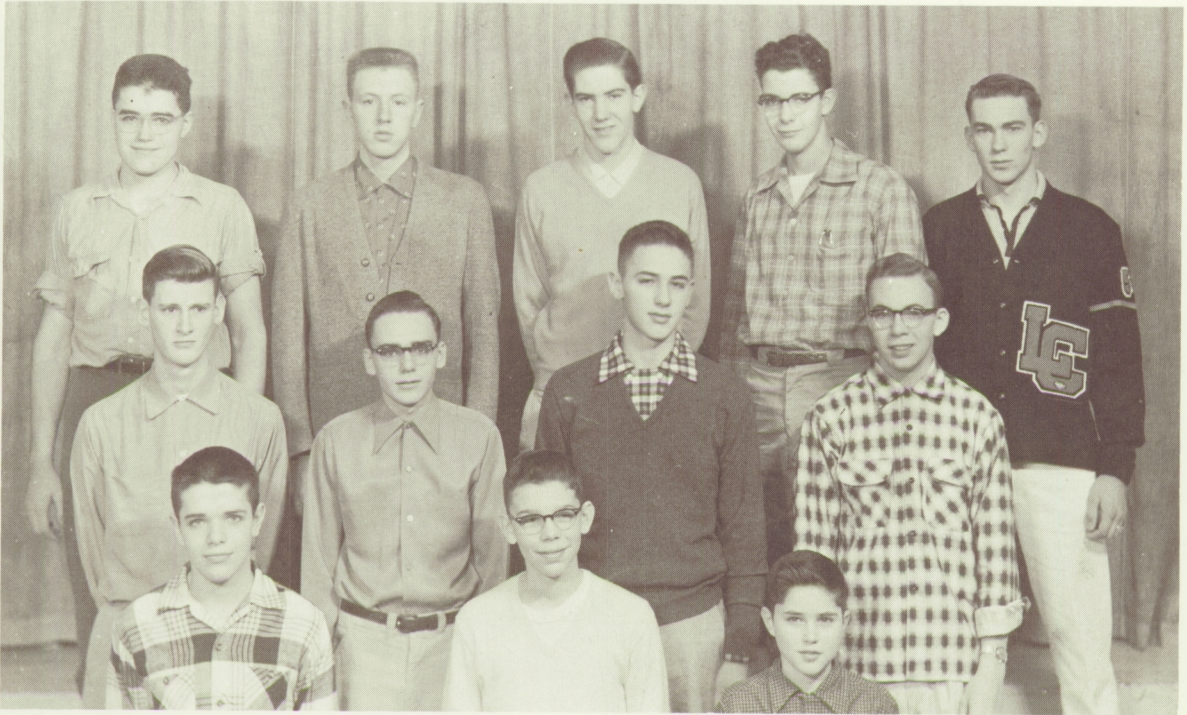

At the semi-monthly meetings of the Book Club, topics are chosen. Each member reads a book on the subject and contributes his part to the discussion. It was the consensus of opinion among the members that the most informative and interesting meeting of the year was one in which Dr. Biehn spoke and displayed his collection of unique books. The Book Club also donated books at Christmas time to the Shriners' Hospital and the Veterans' Hospital. First row: Sharon Cochran, Gretchen Frey, Nancy Jo Johnson, Betty Prestwich, Nancy Smith, FloJo Aspray, Kathy Biehn, Patsy Berquist, Lenore Foulks. Second row: Bunny Cunningham, Linda Smith, Jane Peters, Beverly Farrish, Barbara Schrader, Barbara Wolfe, Connie Kaher, Laurie Moller, Sally Biel, Janet Chisholm, Ann MacGillvray. Third row: Lynn Daly, John Peacock, Doug Madsen, Marilyn Osborn, Bill Colwell, John McGwire, Alexis Fafenrodt, Daune Davis, Dick Green, Fred Moss, Ed Pool.

BOOK CLUB OFFICERS

Under the guidance of Miss Marian H. Pettis, adviser, these capable officers from both semesters of Book Club outlined an interesting and informative program for the rest of the club to pursue throughout the year. Seated are the first semester officers. Left to right: Doug Madsen, treasurer; Gail Peterson, sergeant at arms; Patsy Sterling, secretary; Beverly Farrish, historian; Barbara Wolfe, courtesy chairman; John Peacock, president. Standing are the second semester officers. Left to right: Dick Green, sergeant at arms; Ann MacGillvray, president; Nancy Smith, secretary; Nancy Jo Johnson, vice president, Patsy Berquist, historian; Kathy Biehn, courtesy chairman; John McGwire, treasurer.

CHESS IS BOYS' GAME

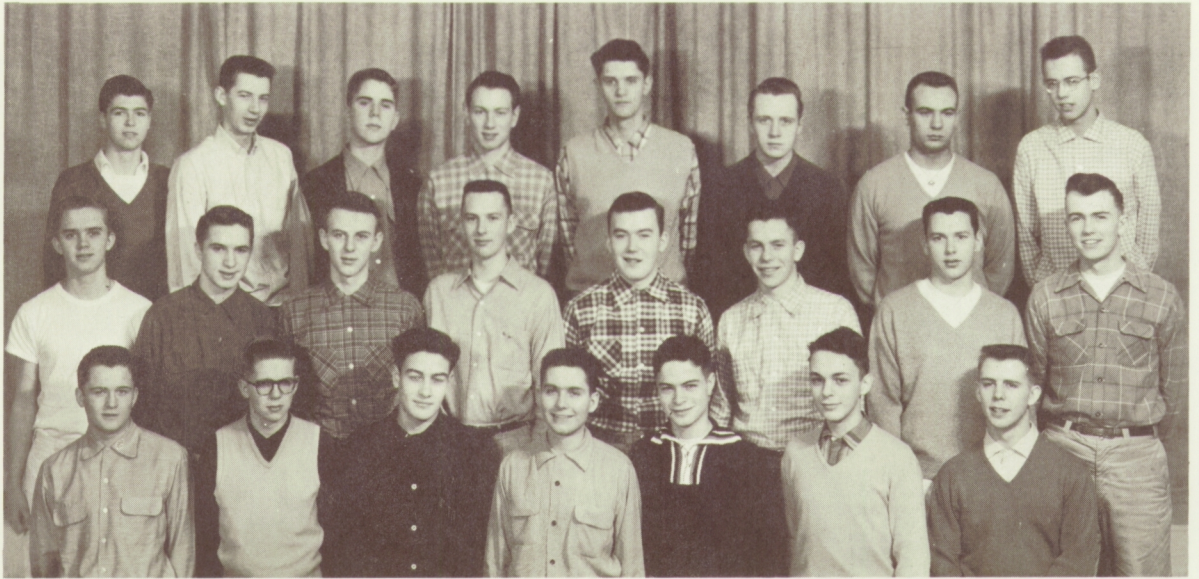

These boys amuse themselves by playing one of the most complex games of all. Though old, it is found very interesting to the members. They not only play against the various high schools, but they also play the senior chess club. First row: John Breaky, Robert Richardson, James Whedon. Second row: Bruce McGrew, Bob Dycus, Forrester Johnson, Floyd Morris. Third row: Danny Wilson, Duane Davis, Dale Mehaffy, Paul Hunt, Jim Boyd.

QUILL AND SCROLL INITIATES NEW MEMBERS

Quill and Scroll is an international honor society for high school journalists. LC's chapter was named for Stoddard King, formerly a well know journalist. A CAPPELLA CHOIR PERFORMS MANY SERVICES

ACTIVITIES

The A Cappella choir, scintillating and active as always, still remains the dominant choral group of the school under the direction of Gerald Hartley. In addition to participating in the Coliseum dedication week ceremony "Schools on Parade," these singers upheld the annual tradition of carolling melodiously in the halls of L.C. before Christmas vacation. They sang up and down the corridors of the Deaconess Hospital at Christmas time, bringing relief and comfort to many patients. An unusual experience for the choir this year was their singing for the opening of the new First National Bank at Riverside and Stevens.

SWEET MUSIC COMES FROM L.C. ORCHESTRA

ITS FUNCTION

Our concert orchestra has been a great benefactor to the Lewis and Clark family under the leadership of C. Oliver Fuller. This Euphonious combination of musical instruments has been steadily growing larger. For instance, the harp was added last year. Besides presenting six well received concerts, the orchestra also partook in the W.S.C. music educators contest.

ORCHESTRA

First Violin: Marcia McElvain, Terry Bech, Neva Williams, Shirley Fleck. Second Violin: Bill Collins, Carol Berreman, Paul Lewis, Mary Baldwin, Fred Enlow, Sheila Gawne, Audrey Wilbur, Dana Alsworth, Meredith Emerson. Viola: Pete Lyse, Pat Eagle, Allis Riblett, Forrester Johnson. Bassoon: Roy Chapel. French Horn: Roger Downey, Ron Anderson, Don Larsen, Kathy Weighale. Trumpet: Galen Rowe, Dick Koppe, Melvin Weiner. Trombone: Bob Thomas, Don Black, Larry Sutherland. Tympani: John Sargent. Percussion: Gary Chappel, Jon Harris, Bob Grandinetti. Harp: Jane Smith. Cello: Janet Foxton, Judy McElvain, Sandra Wolfe, Paul Whelan, Margie Van Tyen. Bass: Orville Trapp, Prue Morach, Philip Tipton. Flute: Janine Adams, John Peacock, Janet Tillman. Oboe: Bill Mitchell. Clarinet: Corinne Lyle, Larry Ayer.

A.S.B. LED BY GIRL

Second semester A.S.B. Council was led by Sally Beil. With the support of students and faculty, the organization was able to sponsor a semester of successful activities.

A.S.B. SUPPORTS HELLO WEEK

By the looks on these intelligent faces one can be sure that some important matter was being decided. Led by capable Pete Riley, the first semester A.S.B. council put over an effective program. Besides supporting Nicko, a Greek orphan, they sponsored such events as the Inaugural Ball and Hello Week.

CLUB PROMOTES MATHEMATICS; HELPS NEEDY FAMILY

After sponsoring the Junior-Senior and Freshman-Sophomore Math Contest, Math Club turned their interest toward helping a needy family at Christmas time with food, clothing, and presents. The climax of the year came with an annual picnic. Officers by semesters were: president, Bill English, Floyd Morris; vice-president, Floyd Morris, Jerry Johnson; secretary, Karen Albriktson (re-elected); treasurer, Jerry Johnson, Duane Davis; fifth executive, Paul Hunt (re-elected). First row: Karen Skinner, Karen Albriktson, Barbara Moon, Floyd Morris, Joanne McGillivray, Jackie Smith. Second row: Miss Kempf, adviser; Nancy Nedwed, Dan Nordmark, Pete Joss, Doug Taylor, Lois Morgan. Third row: Bob Nickors, Bill English, Duane Davis, Paul Hunt, Jim Stromme, Hank Snider. Absent: Bob Dycus, Roger Hahn, Jerry Johnson, Tom Read, Dick Sorenson, Ron Sefton.

THEY SHOOT ARROWS BUT NOT CUPID'S

These students spend much time down in the girls' gym shooting. At each meeting they have a contest which consists of 10 rounds. Each contestant shoots 6 times a round. Their meetings are held twice a month. First row: Mr. Fletcher, Robert Johnson, Barbie Schiebner, Sue Thomas. Second row: Jack Riley, Floyd Morris, Jerry Johnson, Sally Forsyth.

JOURNAL STAFF WAS SMALL

The first semester Journal staff, though small, did a fine job, according to the adviser. The circulation staff made a record number of sales. The advertising staff did equally well. Staff leaders were: Dick Boyd, managing editor; Gail Peterson, advertising manager; Clarence Cross, sports editor; Duane Davis, circulation manager; Lynn Krause, business manager. First row: Mr. Miller, Nancy Gilmore, Gail Peterson, Topper Nielsen, Jerry Hahn, Jeanette Farley. Second row: Orville Trappe, Sharon Miller, Lynn Krause, Barbara Moon, Annette Wiesenborn, Anita Scheel, Sally Palmer, Carol Hiller. Third row: Jim Rosenfield, Earl Preston, Duane Davis, Dick Boyd, Shirley Dubber, Stephanie Hawley, Brick Cross.

JOURNAL EDITOR WAS REDHEAD

Though it numbered 28, the second semester Journal staff was about the right size, according to their adviser. One distinct accomplishment was the paper honoring the 150th anniversary of the Lewis and Clark Expedition. Their editor, Brick Cross, like many other student leaders, was a redhead. First row: Mr. Miller, Mari-jean Purcell, Susan Peck, Stephanie Hawley, Sharon Bardsley, Barbara Moon, Gail Hempstead, Suzie Ernst, Linda Bell. Second row: Nancy Gilmore, Topper Nielsen, Brick Cross, Marilyn Daggett, Caryl Smith, Gretchen Fouche, Ginger Shelton, Lynn Krause, Evelyn Finley. Third row: Jerry Hahn, Dick Boyd, Lex Gamble, Duane Davis, Carl Stolz, Earl Preston, Jim Rosenfield, Dave Broom.

Nan Byfield, Gail Peterson, Marie Hainline, and Janet Chisholm, along with the rest of the Ti-Girls, are about to make a trip to Walla Walla to give their support to the LC Tigers who met the Wa-Hi Blue Devils. 3. Dale Prueninger, Orville Trapp, Jane O'Connor, Bob Thomas, and Doug Peacock are shown presenting an outstanding performance in the A.S.B. talent con. 4. Members of the band set themselves in a relaxed mood in preparation for their trip to Walla Walla. 5. The colorful bulletin board in the front hall, devoted to the news of all school organizations, makes interesting reading for Diane Whitney, Gary Rogers, and Francis Judy. 6. Life was a luxury for these two boys on Tolo Day during Hello Week. Dan Nordmark relaxes as Mary Lindsay combs his hair, while Lance Beecher receives aid from Claudine Johnson in drinking his milk. 7. The welcome mixer, sponsored by the A.S.B., started the first semester very successfully. 8. Ti-Girls' Color Day was a success this year as it has been in the past. Pictured are a group of girls who purchased Shakeroots.

OUTDOOR CLUB ENJOYS MANY SPORTS

Outdoor activities give this club its name. Some of the outings they took this year were: hiking on Mount Spokane, swimming and hiking at Newman lake, and sledding at Indian Canyon. First row: Bill Lee, Carol Eddy, Kathy Wendle, Jean Durham, Vicki Smith, Janet Chisholm. Second row: Tom Russell, Gail Wilcox, Judy Jones, Larry Geraghty, Jack Miller, Sally Beil. Third row: Pete Riley, Tom Dunton, Harm Schlomer, Pete Melrose, John Gray, George Gregg. Fourth row: Doug Matson, Randy Fosseen, John Mjoen, Larry Bennigson, Pogey Hull, Larry Gustafson, Larry Hamblin.

OUTDOOR CLUB OFFICERS

Officers for Outdoor club have a ruddy glow in their cheeks. Pogey Hull, first semester president, likes fishing, water skiing, golfing, and hunting. Carol Eddy, second semester president, loves outdoor life. She enjoys swimming, golfing, hiking and sledding. First row: Ginger Shelton, treasurer (1); Sally Beil, secretary (1); Tom Russell, treasurer (2); John Mjoen, sergeant at arms (1); Pete Riley, vice president (1); Pogey Hull, Carol Eddy, Frank Morrall, vice president (2); Jean Dumas, secretary (2); absent—Floyd Damon, sergeant at arms (1); Larry Bennigson, sergeant at arms (2).

THEY BOLSTER SCHOOL SPIRIT

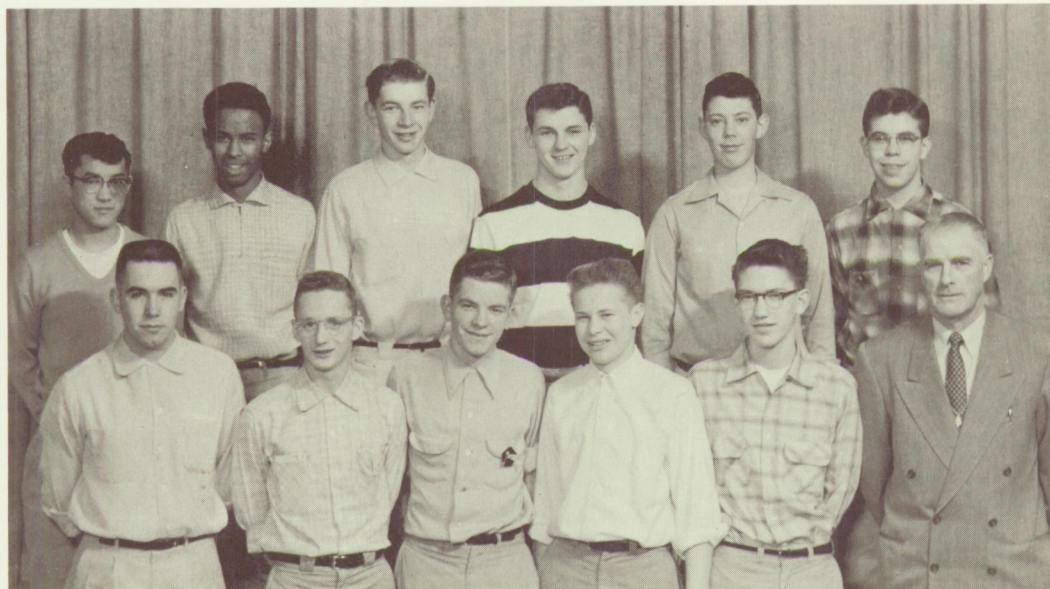

Ten peppy leaders led the student body in cheers and songs starting from football in the fall and following on through the baseball season in the spring. In so doing they helped keep up the team morale and school spirit. This is the first year the sweaters were bought by the school and they will be kept for following Cheerleaders. Top picture—First row: Clara Duren, Arlene Rumburg, Marie Hainline, Carol Haney. Second row: Dick Vanderwall, Dave Burger, Larry Knoll. Third row: Sonia Vargo, Louise Hoyt, Donna Hale. Bottom picture—First row: Clara Duren, Dick Vanderwall, Marie Hainline. Second row: Sonia Vargo, Larry Knoll, Carol Haney, Arlene Rumburg. Third row: Donna Hale, Louise Hoyt, Dave Burger.

SENIOR BOYS PROVIDE ENTERTAINMENT

Organizing for the junior con, the senior Boys' Quartet found itself a tremendous success, and its talent in great demand. The boys appeared at many school cons, on a television show for seven weeks, at the Coliseum talent show, and before various civic clubs around the city. Dave Simmons at the left is the newest member of the group. Larry Peachy, Chad Mitchell and Jim McLain are original members.

FUTURE DRAFTSMEN

William Dunlop is adviser for the newly revised Architectural club. Although small, the members had a successful year. Officers by semester are: Bub Brannon, Karl Nehammer, president; Bill Geist, Johnny Kiriara, vice president; Johnny Kiriara, Stanley Holm, secretary; Ivan Connors, Jerry Komp, treasurer; Dave Bosewell, Bud Brannon, sergeant at arms; Stan Holm, fifth executive. First row: Dave Bosewell, Bill Geist, Ivan Connors, King Novell, Stan Holm, William Dunlop, adviser. Second row: Johnny Kiriara, Henry Thomas, Gary Whittle, Bud Brannon, Jim Arleth, Jerry Komp.

THESPIAN GETS NEW NAME

During part of the year the Thespian club was in a state of change. The group now called Thespian was to get a new name; and a new national club was formed. Membership in the new club is based upon a certain number of points, determined by various features in dramatics. First row: Deniece Darangus, Nancy Smith, Bev Farrish, Sylvia Lake, Marian Brishle, Jan Rubins. Second row: Mrs. Wilson, Mary Chelde, Linda Smith, Mary Bush, Betsy Apple, Kay Adams, Ernestine Hendly. Third row: Ann Henderson, Gary Birge, Frank Morral, Ann Cassil, Francis Judy, Toody Simanton, Dave Burger.

THEY LOVE THE FOOTLIGHTS

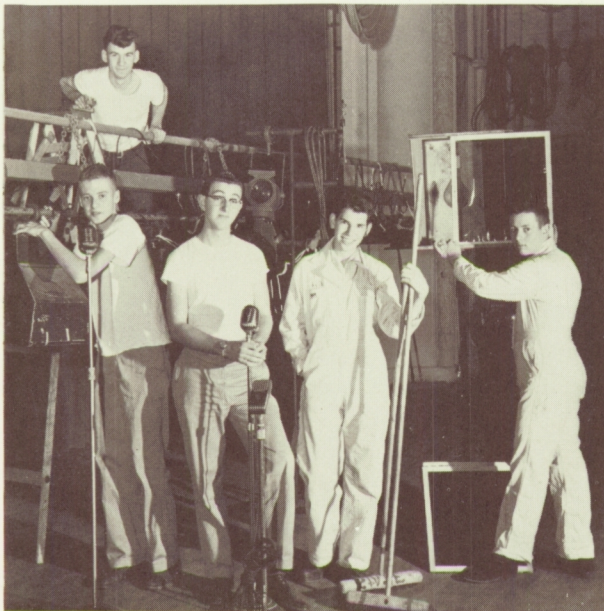

Dramatic talent is evident on the faces of these seven officers of Thespian club. Three boys and four girls show equal interest on the part of the sexes. Left to right: Dave Burger, sergeant at arms; Joyce Cooper, secretary; Frank Morral, president; Beverly Farrish, vice president; Larry Nelson, treasurer; Mary Chelde, historian; Bunny Cunningham, secretary.

B.F. TALENT CON

Section No. 1

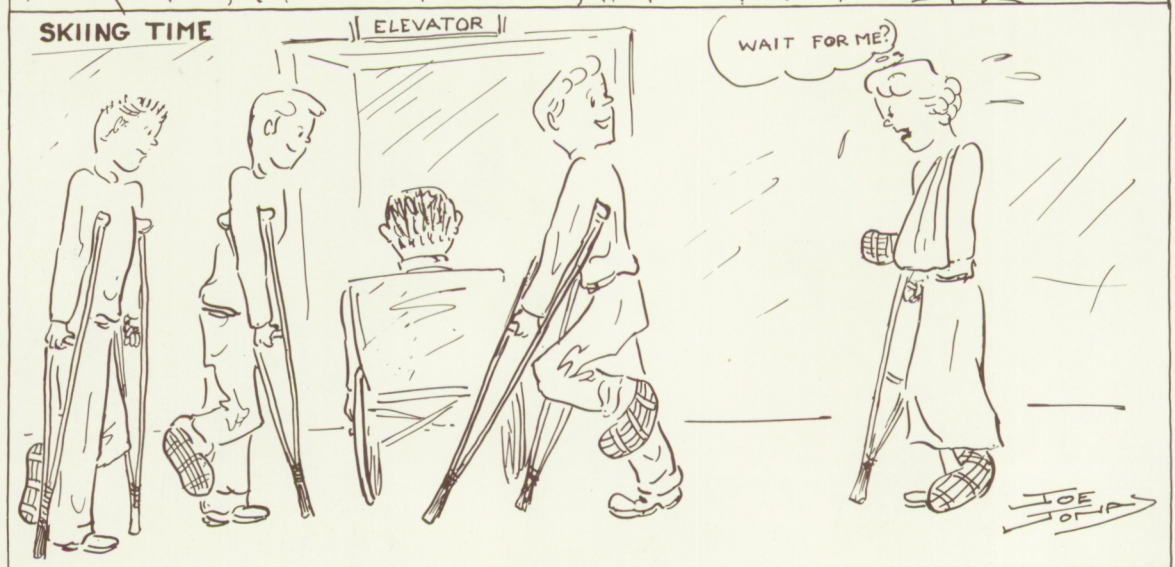

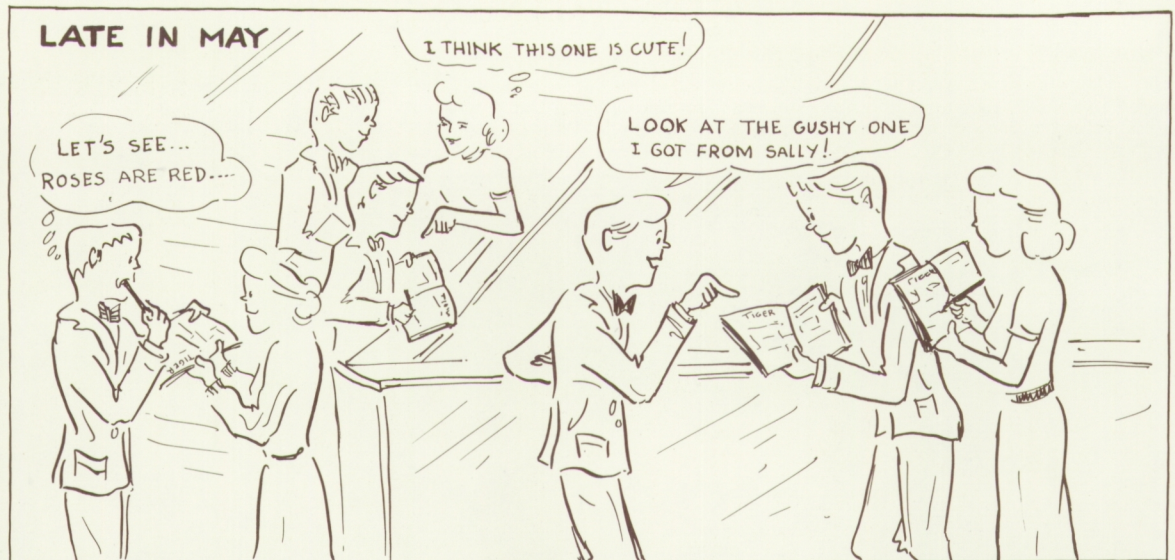

Right: Dr. Kismey (Dick Allen) and his beloved school teacher (Ken Coyle) collided in a "This Is Your Life" skit. Below: The man behind the scenes, our hard working stage-crew without whose labor these cons could not be presented. They are: Charles Mackey, Larry Ayer, Allan Grant, Robert Paping, and Danny Howell.

Section No. 2

At right are the "Six Saints" who played for the con in their usual rousing dixieland style. This band is comprised of Dave Berger, Dick Howard, Dave Newell, George Freeman (almost hidden), Larry Regland, and Roger Briscoe. Lower right: "The Sportsmen," the well known senior dance band also played and accompanied throughout the con. They are: Jim Adams, Galen Rowe, Bob Thomas, Gary Chappel, Orville Trapp, and Doug Peacock. Below: The Chad Mitchell Quartet boomed out their harmony at this con. This time posing as sun-bathers. They are: Dave Simmons, Larry Peachy, Mitchell, and Jim McLean.

USHERETTES DEPEND ON CHARM

The Usherettes in maroon skirts and white blouses were familiar sights at cons and other performances held in the L.C. auditorium. Delbert Marshall is adviser. First row: Sally Palmer, Ginger Shelton, Carol Eddy, Gail Peterson, Judy Nelson, Nan Byfield, Penny Myers, Sandy Martin, June Mihara. Second row: Joann Henry, Janet Chisolm, Sally Beil, Lucy Englund, Bobbie Coman, Jean Bergeson, Shirly Adams, Karen Bartlett, Topper Neilson. Third row: Judy Jones, Kathy Stout, Gail Wilcox, Gail Bronson, Donna Kruger, Stephanie Stockton, Lynn Krause, Jean Dumas, Dianne Whitney, Neysa Denato.

GROUP UNDER LEADERSHIP OF CAPABLE OFFICERS

Usherettes must have pleasing personalities, as these two sets of officers show. Here are girls who must make the public feel at ease. Left to right: Gail Wilcox, president (1); Karen Bartlett, secretary (1); Lucy Englund, secretary (2); Stephanie Stockton, sergeant at arms (2); Jean Dumus, president (2); Jean Burgenson, vice president (2); Topper Nielson, vice president (1); Janet Chisholm, treasurer (1); absent—Carol Eddy, treasurer (1); Gail Peterson, sergeant at arms (1).

OFFICERS AND SENIORS

The T. G. formation is made up of Ti-Girls officers and seniors. That these girls have important responsibilities is evident from the high type of performances all take part in. First row: June Mihara, veep (2) president (1); Gail Woodward, Gail Peterson, president (1); Nancy Smith, Mimi Friend, treasurer (1). Second row: Barbara Wolfe, sergeant at arms (2); Judy Nolan, historian (1); Donna McCreight, Anne MacGillivray, Jean Bergerson. Third row: Sue Arleth, treasurer (2); Judy Olmsted, secretary (1); Pat Sterling. Fourth row: Janet Chisholm, secretary (2); Bobbie Coman, vice president (2); Edy Kulp, historian (2); Anne Corliss, sergeant at arms (1); Pat Smith, Phyllis Melior, Ann Blake, Sally Beil, sergeant at arms (1).

TI-GIRLS EARN MONEY NEEDED

Many money earning projects were held to pay the expenses of the new uniforms. The girls had two cake sales, a popcorn ball sale, a hanger collection, and a sale of pop and popcorn at the minstrel show. They held morning mixers and two evening mixers, the Lilac Lark and the Goal Post Gallop. First row: Jane Smith, Mitzi Saito, Louise Hoyt, Shirley Jones, Bev Cashatt, Judy Lindsay, Joan Mihara, Nancy Christian, Vergie Barcus. Second row: Lynn Parsons, Linda Wagoner, Arlene Belknap, Barbara Hausken, Sylvia Lake, Claudia Perring, Susan Peck, Deanna Lawson, Pat Speelmon. Third row: Gayle Funnell, Eleanor Siegert, Janet Wolter, Caroline Quaife, Kenlynn Williams, Barbara Hood, Margaret Quaife, Stephanie Hawley, Sharon Bardsley, Ann Cassill. Fourth row: Billie Johnson, Juta Grunte, Marilyn Bassett, Florence Brown, Jeanne Whitehouse, Nancy White, J'Ana Chew, Anne Gilman, Sharyn Morris.

The photographs on these pages show for the first time the Ti-Girls in their new uniforms. These outfits, which cost $3,600, were bought with money raised from numerous activities. They match the band uniforms in color and style. First row: Joan Mundegel, Joann McGillivray, Barbara Henry, Janet Coon, Linda Bell, Barbara Durham, Meg Helphrey, Janet Wynn, Jan Rubens. Second row: Donna Hale, Marie Gawne, Margaret Garvin, Marie Hainline, Betsy Apple, Diana Pierson, Karen Sather, Sue Humphreys, Linda Hughbanks, Margie McArdle. Third row: Reba Troyer, Valerie Dutton, Karen Kindschi, Penny Lewis, Vesta Simonton, Joyce Cooper, Laurie Moller, Peg Speelmon, Marilyn Daggett. Fourth row: Betty McLean, Marilyn Waters, Connie Moore, Marilyn Larson, Kay Levesque, Barbara Hanson, Connie Baker, Gayla Goodrich, Joanne Geibel, JoAnn Davis.

BAND PROVIDES MUSIC FOR INAUGURAL BALL

SHARP SHOOTING IS THEIR AIM

BOYS' QUARTET WAS POPULAR

TUNE TOPPERS PROVIDE MUSIC FOR CON

The Tune Toppers were originated for the purpose of providing musical entertainment between acts for the Junior Con. It was composed mostly of juniors and under the combined leadership of Don Black and Chisato Kawabori. First row: Don Taylor, Larry Reglin, Chisato Kawabori, Phil Tipton, Phil Leitch. Second row: Lindon Connelly, Don Black, Bill Gillis, Rodney Black, Richard Curtis. Absent: Dick Koppe.

"PLAIN PRINCESS"

"The Plain Princess," a production of the dramatics department, was given for the children's theater from November 20 through December 18 under the direction of Mrs. Grace Peck. A matinee performance was given for the students of L.C. November 10. "The Plain Princess" is a new play by Arund Paris, and the L.C. cast was the second to produce it. It played nine performances at the Orpheum Theater, two performances in valley schools, and two performances in Lewiston, Idaho. Top picture: Sally Pence, John Kine, Prue Maroch, Sharon Vogel, Paul Wham, Barbara Atkins, Beverly Farrish, Francis Hrdina, Deanna Taylor. Middle picture: Penny Reeves, Jack Watkins, Michon Stuard, John Kine. Bottom picture: Judith Olmsted, Deanna Taylor, Michon Stuard, Barbara Atkins, Jayne Peters, Frances Hrdina.

DEBATING CONTESTS RESUMED

This was the year when contest debating was returned to Lewis and Clark. The debaters met the sixth period under Mrs. Alda Howard. These students debated with the other high schools around Spokane, and took third place in the league. Seated: Donna Hultstrom, Carolyn Carstens. First row: Harry Fay, Tom Read, Jerry Hahn, Don Starbuck, Fred Emery, Mrs. Howard. Second row: Gary Pence, Paul Leitch, Alexis Fafenrodt, Frank Morral, Bob Hundhausen.

LETTERMEN'S CLUB

The Lettermen's club is composed of boys who have made their letter in sports. Their annual banquet is looked forward to by all.

FUTURE BUCKS AND HEMINGWAYS

To write better poems and stories is the aim of Papyrus members. At Christmas time each member brought 25 cents with which to buy a Care package. They had many other activities. First row: Glee Perkins, Joan Smith, Sue Rindell, Sharon Cochran, Kathy Biehn, Rudy Soriano. Secon row: Mary Ellen Harris, Gretchen Frey, Caryl Smith, Nancy Nedwed, Susan Hockaday, Marilyn Daggett, Gale Hempstead. Third row: Gail Cromwell, Stephanie Hawley, Stephanie Stockton, Paul Leitch, Duane Davis, Jim Rosenfield, Bob Barton.

PRODUCE GOOD STORIES AND POEMS

Many good poems and stories have been written by the officers of Papyrus club. The picture shows the leaders for both semesters. First row: Kathy Biehn, treasurer (2); Gretchen Frey, sergeant at arms (2); Gail Cromwell, secretary (2); Joanne Smith, sergeant at arms (1); Sharon Cochran, sergeant at arms (2). Second row: Bette Davis, historian (1); Glee Perkins, president (2); Jim Rosenfield, vice president (2); Steve Stevens, treasurer (1); Duane Davis, vice president (1); sergeant at arms (2); Stephanie Stockton, president (1); Caryl Smith, secretary (1); Jerry White, sergeant at arms (1).

TOASTMASTERS PURCHASE TROPHY

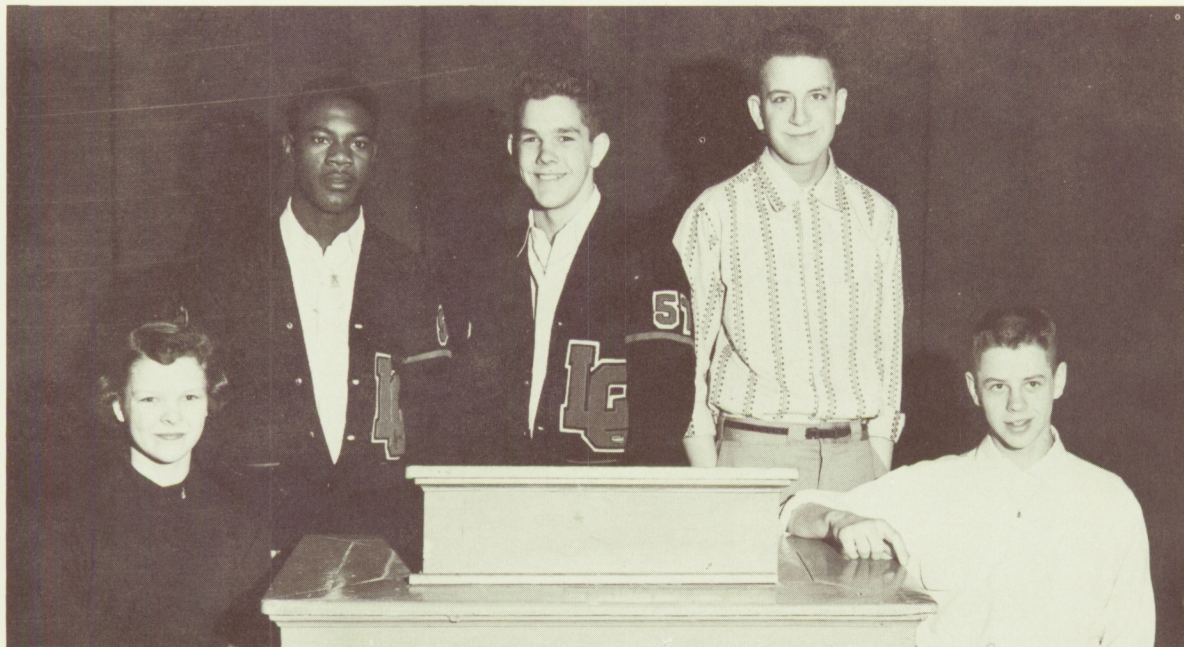

Sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, the Junior Toastmasters club started the year with a club hayride, and continued with activities such as a debate and speaking contest with Senate club, the annual Father and Son banquet, a picnic in the spring and a bowling night. They also purchased a trophy on which the names of the winners of the speaking contest will be placed. First row: Fred Emry, John Gallagher, Pat Haskins, president; Rodney Black, Dick Sorenson, Dick LeMasters, Dave Broom. Second row: Floyd Morris, Bruce McGrew, Jim Johnson, Jerry Johnson, Pete Joss, vice president; Dave Morgan, Bob Howe, secretary. Third row: Jack Kjeldgaard, Tay Conrad, Dave Street, fifth executive; Dick Tefft, Mike Gordon, Paul Hunt, treasurer; Vern Campbell, Jim Fray, Chisato Kawabori. Absent: Hale McPhee, Bob Dycus, Bill Marks.

OFFICERS HAVE TALKATIVE YEAR

It takes a "gift of gab" to be a successful officer for Junior Toastmasters. Pat Haskins was president; Paul Hunt, treasurer; Dave Street, fifth executive; Bob Howe, secretary; Jerry Johnson, sergeant at arms; Pat Haskins, president; Pete Joss, vice president.

SOPHOMORES RATIFY CONSTITUTION

JUNIOR LEADERS DOMINATED BY BOYS

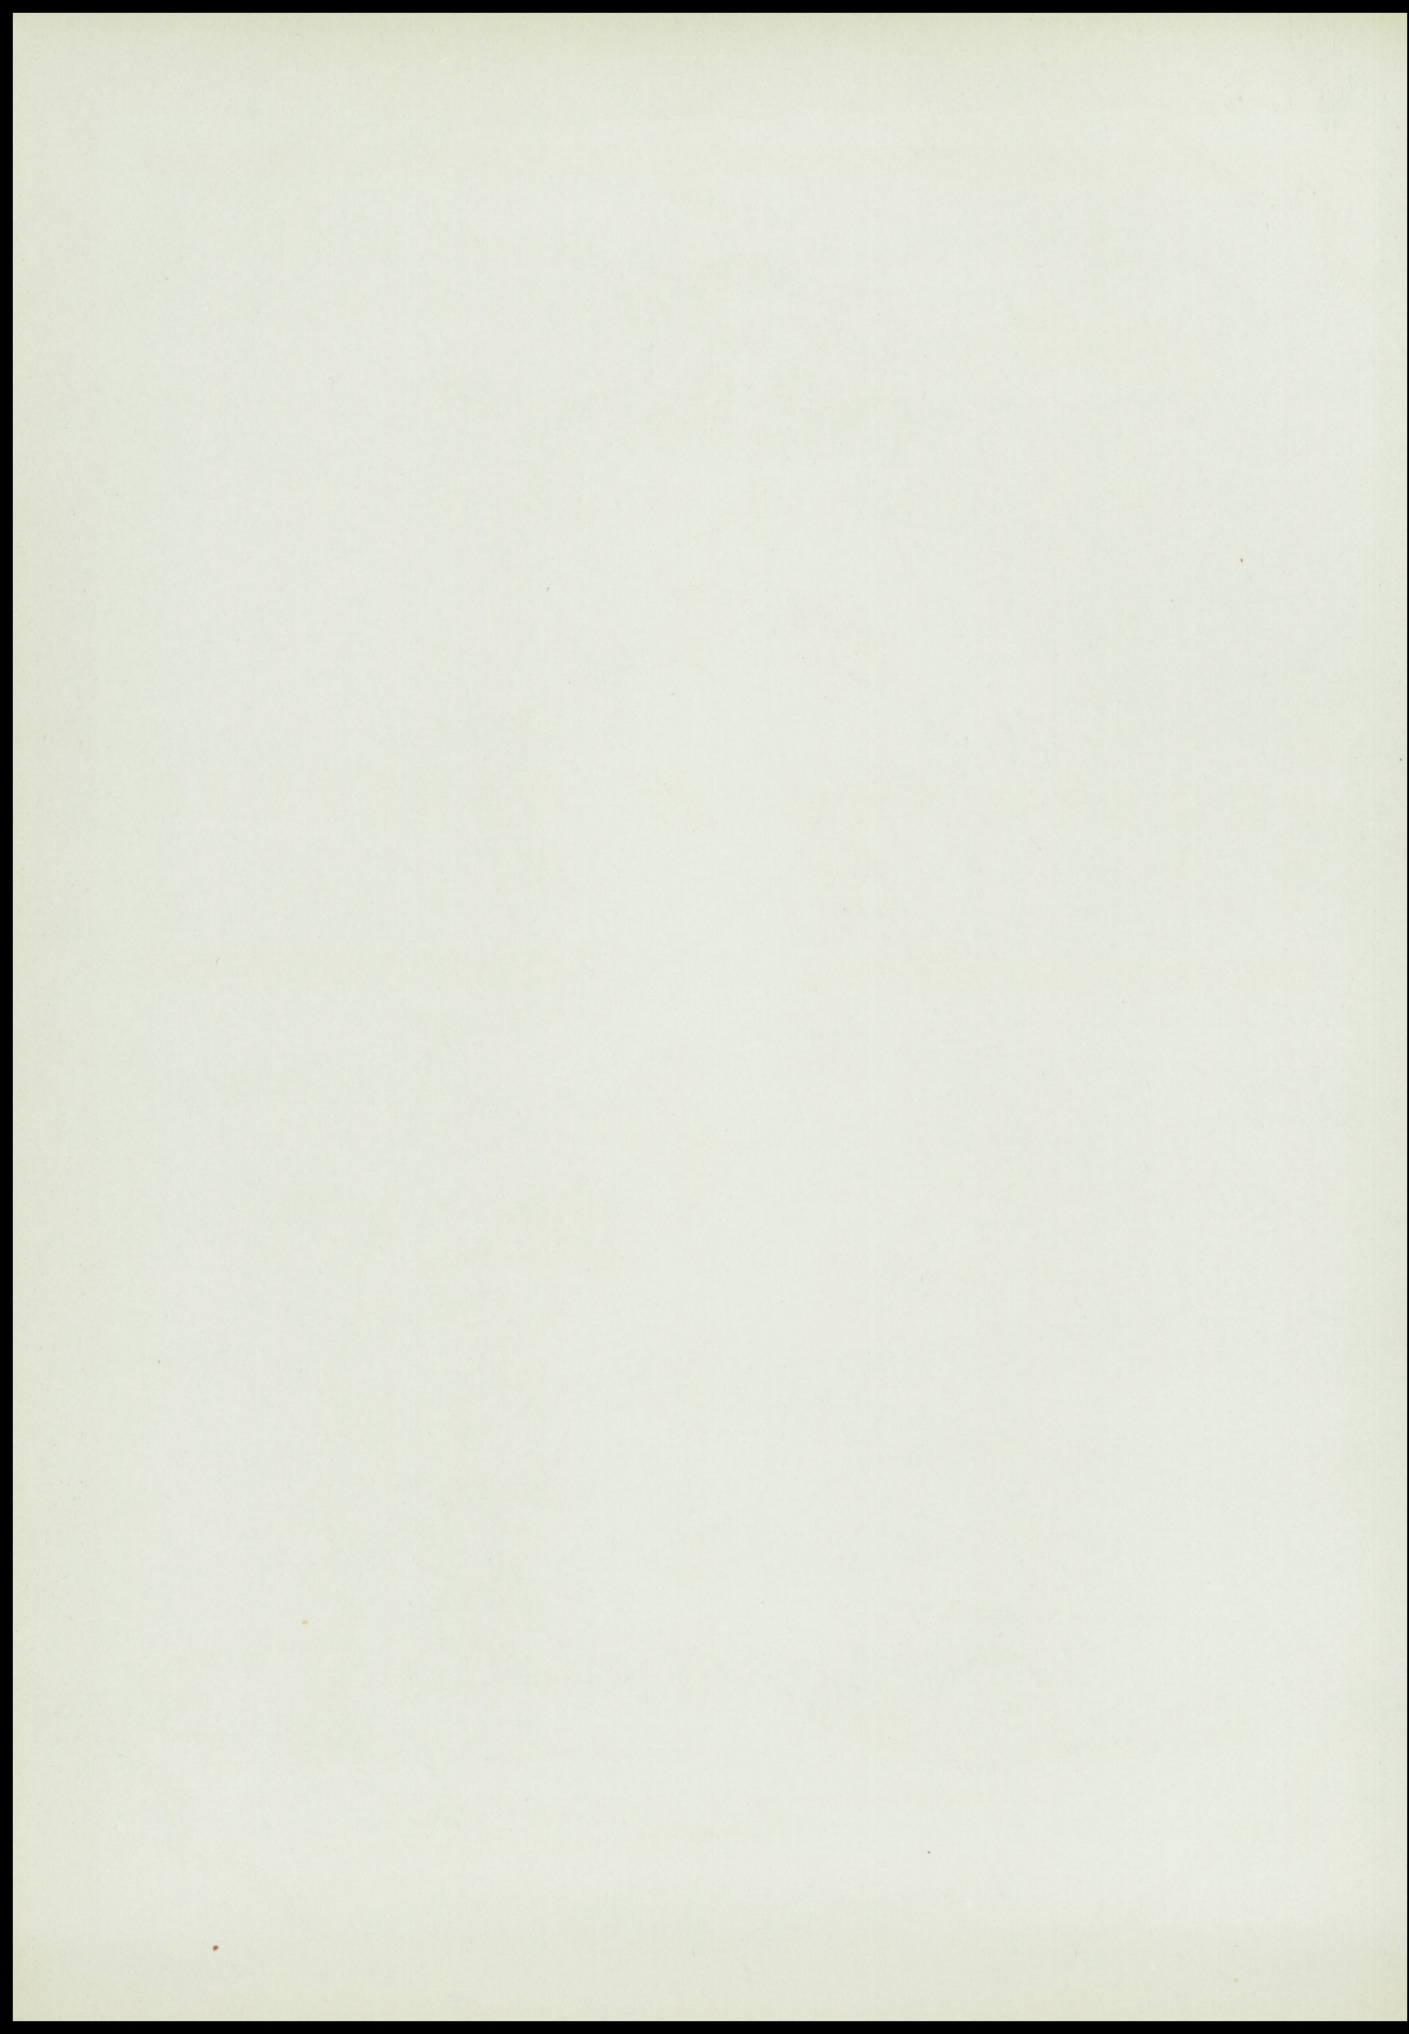

Much hard work was put in by these students to make the activities of the junior class a success. Their con was a hit. First row: Rudy Soriano, vice president (2); Helen Lamb, fifth executive (2); Joyce Cooper, secretary (2); Chidato Kawabori, treasurer (2); Larry Shopbell, president (2). Second row: Mike Killien, fifth executive (1); John Peacock, president (1); Fred Moss, treasurer (1); Tom Dunton, secretary (1). Absent: Barbara Wolfe, fifth executive (1).
